<sup>33</sup>But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. - Matthew 6:33 (KJV)

From the Pastor,

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Matthew 6:33 (KJV)

His righteousness is so far above our ability to reach that it seems unattainable. The very next verse then tells us to “take therefore no thought for tomorrow.” We as Christians should be striving to follow Him and His way today and let Him worry about tomorrow. Jesus knows what we need today and what we will need tomorrow. Put your priorities in line and make Him first in everything you do and His way will lead you properly through all the things that are placed on you. I pray for this church body to not only grow as individuals but in corporate worship. To do so means to decide what is important in it and that must be His righteousness.

Allow the world present around you to seek after whatever they want without influencing you because they will seek according to their priorities. Let our priority be Him – to look, to act, to speak, and to live every day the way He would have us to. This is my prayer for St. Clair First Baptist Church. I invite and encourage each of you to pray this prayer with me in the upcoming weeks and months.

- Rev. Jim Collins
